THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION.

BY W. A. HEMPHILL & CO.] ATLANTA, GEORGIA, SUNDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1870. [VOLUME III---NUMBER 144.

Evening Edition.

Atlanta, Ga., December 3, 1870.

CORRECTION.—In our report of the Council proceedings in this morning's issue, we were mistaken as to the name of one of the gentlemen recommended for a committee to examine Water Works in other cities. The committee recommended were Hon. J. L. Dunning, J. H. Flynn, A. Murphy and Wm. Rushton.

☞ The Albany and Columbus Railroad Company elected the following Board of Directors:

E. Hulbert, N. M. Hill,
H. I. Kimball, Jas. M. Smith,
B. G. Lockett, D. A. Vason.
Carey W. Styles.

Colonel E. Hulbert was chosen President, and Carey W. Styles Secretary and Treasurer.

Our Augusta Letter.

We call especial attention to our Augusta letter, signed "Mignonne," our regular correspondent. His statements about Free Schools are worthy of special consideration. He says this is Atlanta's opportunity. The admonition is a golden one. Let our people heed it. "Mignonne" is one of the best teachers in the South, and thoroughly acquainted with the whole subject. We again commend his letter to our readers.

Water-Works.

We give in another column, the resolution passed in secret session of the City Council, to the popular vote on Wednesday. We hope the people will vote unanimously for the works. We need them imperatively. A large fire would exhaust every cistern near it, without being quenched. This fire risk quadruples insurance. The saving in insurance would soon pay for the works. To add enough cisterns would cost fifty or sixty thousand dollars, and leave us little better off for future growth of the city.

Let us have the Water-works.

The Air-Line Railroad.

The Air-Line Eagle thus speaks of the progress of the Air-Line Railroad and its effect upon that section:

The work on this great through line progresses rapidly, and will be ready for the superstructure to Gainsville by the beginning of next year. A steam saw mill and many residences are being built—property is steadily raising in value, and will, before Spring, bring higher prices, owing to the new established fact that the Macon and Knoxville Railroad, and the Ellijay and Gainsville Road, will connect and cross here, and make this a distributing center for all this region.

☞ Since General Terry refused to permit his band to play on the fair grounds at Augusta, after a negro had hauled down the American flag, some of the unreconstructed reconstructed have taken occasion to hiss him on the streets. Years to come, this will be spoken of as a matter of hissed Terry. [Dayton Journal.

That wit is a little hissed-Terrycal. When the coming historian disinters this fact, after it shall have been forgotten, will it be considered a case of disin-Terry?—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Politics in DeKalb County.

DECATUR, GA., Dec. 3, 1870.

Editor Constitution: The Radicals met at this place last night for the purpose of nominating candidates for the several county officers of this, (DeKalb) county. Three white men were present.

Benjamin F. Swanton, white, acted as Secretary.

The other two whites, William J. Thrasher, now candidate for Sheriff of DeKalb county, and Hamp Woodall.

The following were the candidates nominated:

For Representative—William Joiner, negro.

James Fitz Allen Simmons, Clerk Superior Court.

Tax Collector—Thos. Terrell, colored.

Tax Receiver—William Anderson.

County Treasurer—Benj. F. Swanton, white, S. T.

County Surveyor—Joseph Walker, white, S. T.

A speech was made by Campbell, negro Senator of the Georgia Legislature.

There was quite a heated contest in the nomination of a candidate for Representative. The contestants being Joseph Walker, white, and William Joiner, colored, who finally was nominated over the white man.

William Joiner is known in this county as Bill Daniell, the carriage driver of Dr. N. C. Daniell, deceased, and a notorious thief.

OUR AUGUSTA LETTER.

The Interest in the Atlanta Free School Project—Arguments in Favor of Free Schools—Savannah—Success in Her Schools—Selma's Experience.

AUGUSTA, December 1, 1870.

Editor Constitution: As a friend of free public instruction, I am watching, with the most intense interest, the progress of the discussion touching the early establishment, in your thriving and truly progressive city, of a thorough system of graded Public Schools. Such a system is a felt want in many of your sister cities. We need it in Augusta as much as you do in Atlanta, but we are without the necessary laws authorizing the inauguration of what may be called a local system.

Could we have secured the passage of our bill, Augusta would have been ready to go to work in January next. We hope for better things and brighter days.

It cannot be that there are any persons in your city absolutely opposed to Public Schools. The opponents of a measure so prolific of good, see through a glass darkly. Enough has been said about bankruptcy, resulting from that embarkation, by communities in such a good and ennobling work. But experience teaches that the inauguration and support of graded Public Schools have proven the sure precursors of extraordinary prosperity and steadily increasing wealth.

I am tempted to branch off here for the purpose of citing facts in verification of the foregoing assertions. But I desist. The field opens up too broad to be scurried in a short newspaper article. I must content myself with a few of the almost countless numbers of solid arguments which can be adduced in favor of public instruction.

Look at Savannah, whose system is expanding annually. The system is every day becoming more perfect, and, as a consequence, more popular. Her Saturday Normal class, which every teacher is required to attend, is of incalculable advantage to all concerned. The people willingly submit to taxation for the proper support of such a magnificent cordon of schools. And well may they; for they are not in doubt as to the progress which their children make as they move year by year through the regular grades—leaving the High Schools fully prepared for active life.

The total expenditure in support of these schools was in '66-'67, $14,279; '67-'68, $20,684; '68-'69, $21,316.74. Cost of education per scholar, fifteen dollars per annum.

Columbus tried the experiment in 1867, and she rejoices in a most magnificent and efficient system of schools. Her school property has accumulated rapidly, and the schools are rapidly extending and widening their healthful influences.

Take one thousand children of the average ages to be best instructed the usual scholastic year and it will be found that $2 50 per month, or $25 per annum, is an exceedingly low estimate for tuition. Taking it at that, however, we find that the sum of $25,000 will be necessary to pay the tuition of the one thousand pupils. The average cost per annum a pupil, in the best graded public schools, is only fifteen dollars, so that the thousand pupils could be guaranteed and given superior instruction for the sum of $15,000—a saving of $10,000. And the course of study, be it remembered, embraces the classics and higher mathematics.

The people of Selma, Ala., were hard to convince on this subject. They satisfactorily and savingly tested the matter, and saved the first year the snug sum of $37,365. The Public Schools, it was clearly demonstrated, afforded the best educational facilities. There is no mistaking the progress made by the people.

This is Atlanta's opportunity. Organize your Public Schools early and thoroughly, and your march will continue onward and upward to a degree of prosperity higher than was ever dreamed of by your most sanguine citizens.

NEW YORK.

The total fund subject to the requisition of the New York City Board of Education the current year is $3,547,489 76. Estimated expenses for the year, $2,790,500. Of this large amount, $1,686,000 goes for teachers salaries; $21,000 for superintendent's salaries (superintendent and five assistants,) and $76,500 for the Normal College.

The fifteenth annual report of Brooklyn Public Schools show 724 teachers—38 males; 686 females. Total enrollment of pupils for the year, 90,132; of which number 1,456 were colored, in separate schools. The average register, 37,782 pupils, average attendance for the year, 32,761. Cost per capita on the whole number instructed, $930; on the entire registry, $650.

The evening schools, one for whites and two for colored youth, were attended by 5,574 pupils, 208 colored. Number of male teachers, 21; female 70. Disbursements for these evening schools, $10,987 26. MIGNONNE.

Resolution Passed About Water-Works in the City Council in Secret Session Last Night—Alderman Howell Offering the Resolution.

Whereas, it is the desire of this body to get an expression of opinion from the citizens of Atlanta on the question of Water-Works before acting on the bids now pending before us by the different parties for building Water-Works, Therefore be it

Resolved, That the different bids for building Water-Works for the city of Atlanta, from the points designated, (South river and Chattahoochee river) be published in the city papers of Atlanta daily till Wednesday next.

Resolved, further, That on that day the question of Water-Works or no Water-Works, be submitted to the voters in the municipal election to be held that day; and that the managers of said election be instructed to keep a correct tally sheet of all votes cast—with "Water-Works" or "No Water-Works" written or printed thereon—and that said votes be returned by said managers to the Clerk of this Council, who shall count and consolidate said votes, and submit a report of the same to this body at its next meeting after said election.

Georgia News.

Bainbridge is to have a tournament.

As to who shall be the candidate for Mayor of Columbus, has not been settled.

Barnesville had an increase of seven babies to the village census in one day—lively, that.

The Brunswick and Augusta Railroad is completed 106 miles—sixty miles east of Albany.

W. L. Ellis & Bro., of Macon, made the first shipment of cotton over the Macon & Augusta Railroad.

Skating Rink booming in Rome. James Ward, with his "stars," are delighting theater goers in the same city.

Mr. Hiram Williams, of West Point is dead. Judge Harney, of Rome, is holding Superior Court in LaGrange.

President Wm. M. Wadley, of the Central Railroad, has established his residence at Macon.

The Trustees of the Southern Masonic Female College have elected Rev. James N. Bradshaw President of that Institution.

St. Andrews Society, of Savannah, celebrates its one hundred and seventh anniversary. Skiff & Gaylord are giving the "Albino Chief," supported by an Albino band.

R. L. Bradley, of Upson county has caught with his dogs, this season, ninety-two opossums, two coons, and a number of squirrels.

A great deal of cotton in the fields in Talbot county—too much speaking and politics.

Washington Gossip.

Among the Herald's items of Washington gossip, we find the following:

Senator Williams, of Oregon, had a protracted interview with the President to-day. It is stated that Senator Williams has been appointed Attorney General in place of Mr. Akerman, and arrangements have been made by which Akerman, who, as well as Williams, is a strong supporter of the administration, will be elected to the United States Senate from Georgia. The recent visit of Senator Cameron and other prominent Pennsylvania politicians Georgia was partly to pave the way for Akerman's election. The influence of those Pennsylvania Republicans being exerted for Akerman in the interest of the administration, it is expected that the President will select a Pennsylvanian for Commissioner of Internal Revenue or Commissioner of Patents.

What in the deuce does all this mean? We already have seven Senators elect. Stephens and Johnson, elected by the Jenkins Legislature, and Hill, Miller, Farrow, Whiteley and Blodgett by the Bullock Legislature, covering every possible scrap of Senatorial ground for half a dozen years to come.

Who of these multifarious officials are to get in remains to be seen. But where is the place for Akerman, or for Bullock, as the Washington gossips talk? Whose place is Akerman to take? and whose Bullock? Will Bullock go back on Blodgett? or will Akerman tread on Farrow's toes?

Akerman had better hold on to that Attorney-Generalship. That is the best thing he ever will have—we mean for himself. We could tell a much better thing for the people.

Will There be an Election?

CLAYTON COUNTY, GEORGIA, }
November 28, 1870. }

Editor Constitution: It is being talked in this county, that the election in December is or will be a hoax, and that it is only a Radical fraud to prolong the terms of the present incumbents in office, on the ground that the election taking place in December, instead of November, as the law and Constitution directs, the matter will be laid before the Supreme Court, who will decide the whole affair unconstitutional after the election is over. Will you please give us the facts of the case and what the people in your county and city think about it. There are two candidates in Clayton county for Representative, to-wit: Captain Joseph H. Hule and William McConnell, Esq. McConnell is Radical. Morrow announced himself as a candidate, but he has crawfished. Captain Hule is the nominee of the Democratic party. That means something. Yours, etc., F.

Our people are acting on the idea that there will be an election. The Code of Georgia says that if the regular officers to conduct the elections do not present themselves by ten o'clock on the day of the election, or are present and refuse to hold the election, freeholders may conduct the election. This section is unrepealed, and secures an election.

We urge our friends to go to work, and on election day, turn out and vote for the Democratic candidates, in conformity with the law.

☞ The seal cause of the President's spite against Mr. Motley, has transpired. It seems that the latter had informed certain British officials that the American President "was the creature of accident, an ignorant man, and wholly unfit for his place." True as the statement is, it was very naughty for Mr. Motley to make it, and when it got to the ears of the President he flew into a great rage and ordered him home forthwith. An ignorant mast, forsooth? Ask Cameron or Forney if the President is ignorant. To be sure, Charles Sumner said Grant was ignorant, but did not know it, but he is a Senator. For Motley to say such a thing was impudent as well as insolent!

☞ We notice that the President's sycophants who edit the official advertisements look at Forney's coat-tails to see how the wind blows, are crying out that they are tired of the controversy about the McGarrahan swindle. The fatigue that they must now endure is slight when compared with the hideous weariness that the future has in store for them.—Cincinnati Commercial.

PUSSIENT.—At a late meeting of the Survivors' Association, held in Columbia, the following toast was offered by an ex-rebel:

"U. S. Secession—Lost in war, lost in peace, and first in the pockets of his countrymen!"

☞ It's nicey-nicey to be a juror. The jurymen in the Vanderpool murder case who were for acquittal were surrounded by ladies at the conclusion of the trial, and each juror was heartily kissed.

☞ The census of the Cherokee Nation shows up 7,797 males, and 7,691 females; total 15,488, including 683 orphans.

ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, December 3.—Foreign advices are much confused.

The impression exists in diplomatic circles that the French have made a brilliant effort, and at the last authentic advices, they were pushing their advantage.

It is undeniable that the French forces actually won the victory as claimed by them near Orleans; but the Prussians brutally repulsed the French attack before Paris.

It is not true that the French of Loire effected a junction with Trochu. Though the Prussian lines were repeatedly successfully pierced during the engagement the bayonet charge of the French were exceedingly brilliant.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, December 3.—The Tribune's correspondent at Gambetta's headquarters at Autun, writes on Thursday, that the Prussians, yesterday afternoon, attacked Autun with 12 cannon, infantry and cavalry, they were repulsed with great loss. The Prussians shelled the city. The Mobiles behaved well.

A correspondent of the Tribune telegraphs to New York on Thursday, from Versailles, that the fighting on the 30th was followed by no fresh movements. Yesterday there was a lull in the fire from the forts, to-day again, there was firing in the direction of Charenton.

The Tribune correspondent telegraphs, at 8 o'clock A. M., Friday, from Orleans, that the army of the Loire was at that moment leaving Orleans, and that the Prussians were concentrating at Janeville and Petheviers.

The World's special from Tours, dated Friday, announces that Trochu and Palladines had formed a junction, and the siege of Paris was virtually raised.

PRUSSIA.

BERLIN, December 3.—The treaty admitting Bavaria into North Germany has been ratified by the Federal Council. The Bavariandit will act on the treaty on the 10th instant.

PENNSYLVANIA.

PHILADELPHIA, December 3.—The Girard Iron Tube Works were burned this morning. Loss, $175,000. Three hundred and seventy-five workmen are thrown out of employment.

NORTH GEORGIA METHODIST CONFERENCE.

THIRD DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Reported specially for The Atlanta Constitution by W. G. WHITE, Local Editor.]

AUGUSTA, December 2, 1870.

The following local preachers were elected Deacon's:

Ellison D. Stone, Athens; D. C. Oliver, L. H. Sewell, Joel D. Gunnels, Elberton; Thomas P. Harris, Rome; William J. Walton, Marietta; John H. Whitaker, La Grange; Shelly P. Downs, Jasper county; C. C. Davis, Atlanta; Erasmus W. Jordan, Fayette county; Jonah J. Jordon, Russellville, Monroe county.

The following local preachers were elected Elders:

Walter Ewing Johnson, Richmond county; Crish Langford, Warren county; Thomas M. Pledger, Rosaca; Hezekiah H. Porter, Spring Place; Richard Willbanks, Summerville; (Mr. Willbanks is 70 years of age) Joseph B. E. Lewis, Rome; Wilson B. McElroy, Eubanlee; James P. Pricket, Fulton county; Jesse L. K. Smith, Monticello.

Dr. A. D. Chenault applied for admission as Elder, but was rejected, and the application of Alfred J. Stewart, of Euharlee, was withdrawn for the present.

Edward L. Stephens, who was ordained an Elder in the Methodist Church South, afterwards joined the Congregational Methodists, who recognized his ordination. He returned to the Methodist Church South, and asked that his reaccession be noted, which was done.

Frederick Thompson, of Dallas, also applied for the recognition of his ordination as Elder. He formerly was a member of the Methodist Church South, then connected himself with the Northern Methodist, and afterwards with the Congregational Methodist. He returns to his first love. The fact was noted.

The characters of the following Elders were passed: Joseph Chambers, W. T. Hamilton, Charles J. Oliver, W. D. Heath, J. T. Norris, J. A. Reynolds, Peter M. Pelham, A. J. Jarrell, W. J. Scott, S. J. Bellah, R. J. Harwell, M. F. Maltby, J. L. Pierce, W. A. Rogers, Perry G. Reynolds, J. Carr, R. W. Bingham, E. P. Birch, T. S. L. Harwell, A. M. Thigpen, J. W. McGehee, R. F. Jones, J. T. Lower, D. D. Morgan Calloway, Young J. Allen, W. A. Parks, Athius G. Haywood, J. Lewis, Jr., and W. P. Harrison.

The call was suspended at this point.

Rev. J. M. Stokes was transferred to the Florida Conference.

Rev. J. T. Norris was placed on the Supernumerary list, and Rev. J. W. McGhee, located at his own request. Rev E. H. Myers read an interesting letter from Rev. Young J. Allen, Missionary, dated Shanghai, October 12th. Missionary operations in China are promising. There are two Chapels in Shanghai. There are three students (natives) helpers, and a Bible woman. She is sixty years of age, yet is very active and is accomplishing much good. Her duty is to visit the poorer classes and read the Bible to them. There are thirty pupils attending the school at Shanghai. The Chinese Christian Advocate has a circulation of 50,000 (by the way) put it on your excange list for Capt. Candlers benefit.

Mr. Allen calls for reinforcements, and does not think of leaving the field on account of the war cloud. Only one Sunday school in Georgia had sent up contributions for the mission, and that was Union Point Sunday School.

Rev. Dr. Bond, of Baltimore, was introduced to the Conference to-day.

Rev. George G. Smith, well known in Atlanta, as well as other points in Georgia was also introduced.

Rev. Wm. P. Harrison addressed the Conference in behalf of his magazine; as also did Rev. J. E. Evans in behalf of the Atlanta Literary Institute.

The Conference is a model working body. I would be willing to swap off the present Georgia Legislature for it, and the Governor for the Bishop.

A NAUGHTY CARPET-BAGGER.—A carpet-bag revenue officer in South Carolina recently ran away from his wife, and the bereaved lady writes to the Louisville Chief of Police for information. This is what she says of him:

"He came into Kentucky to go into politicks he was one of John Brown's men and was with him in Maryland he is a good stumpt speaker can edit a nusepaper deliver lectures and teach school and is quite a friend to the colored people he tryes to make himself notable where ever he is he was a sesser of eternal revnaw before he went to Kentucky—he has sandy mustash and ways about 145."

☞ The semi official North German Correspondent gives the following answer to the report of Prussia's purpose to restore the Bonapartes to the French throne:

"Should Louis Napoleon be definitely deposed by the formal decision of the French people, we can assure the neutral press that Germany will not move a finger in the cause of Bonapartism. Such a course would be incompatible both with our feelings and our interests. It is absurd to talk of legitimist sympathies for a family whose present head has described himself as a parvenu. Till France, however, has decided on her future destinies, Louis Napoleon, for us, is still the Emperor."

☞ There is great disappointment in Administration circles with the reception B. F. Butler's Boston speech has met, as by the leading Radical press of the country. It was read to Grant and some members of his Cabinet, who were in the secret of B. F. B., who came on here for the purpose, and was approved as the great card of the Administration, and it was hoped that the war policy advocated by the confidential friend and adviser of the President would awaken a fervor that would overshadow all other issues. But it has fallen "cold, dead," and, may be, with it Sickles' hope of being transferred to the Court of St. James.

☞ Mr. Odo Russell, son-in-law of the late Lord Clarendon, and nephew of Earl Russell, who has been appointed Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs in London since his departure from Rome, is one of the ablest young diplomats of England. His special mission to the Government of Tours, at this critical moment, indicates that Lord Lyons is not in favor with the Imperialist Lord Granville, and that the latter wishes to be represented near the Republican authorities of France by a personal agent, whose influence may probably pave the way for an Anglo-Prussian alliance in view of the impending complications with Russia in the East.

☞ Penny Fern is worth $80,000 in her own right.

☞ The New York Express says that "every New York hotel has its free list just like a place of public amusement. We learn that one hotel here has free guests who cost the proprietors about $250,000 per annum, and, though they maintain this burden voluntarily, they cannot give a good reason for it."

☞ It is reported that General Butler's friends in New York have resolved to call a meeting in order to endorse his plan of settling the Alabama claims. The object is believed to be to secure the nomination of General Butler to the Presidency.

☞ A Kansas paper, describing a wedding trousseau, says: "The bride is to have trailing nightgowns; oh, such beauties, with ever such long trails—five feet, at least. One chronicler that our gossipping friend showed us had over $50 worth of trimming on it, that is only one of half a dozen."

A SINGULAR STATEMENT.—Ex-Secretary of the Navy, Gideon Welles, charges that Wm. H. Seward agreed to surrender Fort Sumter to the Confederates in 1861, and would have succeeded but for the importunities of himself and Montgomery Blair.

☞ A New Hampshire magistrate is under indictment for having married a matron of forty to a youth of fifteen, whom she had captured, and who states that he was afraid to say "no" when asked the momentous question.

☞ An evening paper says: "It has long been the fashion to dance the German; but at Paris, it is now all the rage to curse the German." A mistake. In place of dancing the German, the Parisians are now making the Germans dance.

☞ George Alfred Townsend says that Ben Butler does not possess one constructive talent. The nature and combination of his qualities are destructive, instable, revolutionary, and brutal, one part Danton and two parts Sauterne.

☞ The Chicago Historical Society has 16,225 bound volumes, 100,000 pamphlets, 2,600 files of newspapers, 5,000 manuscripts, 1,200 maps and charts, 400 cabinet collections, and 4,682 miscellaneous literary productions.

The test of Ploughs on yesterday, the 29th, and Saturday, the 26th, was heavily contested, by all the leading Ploughs from the West, North, and South. George Watt, the Watt Ploughman, offered on the field, $100 for any Plough on exhibition at this Fair that would go through a very heavy cover of weeds, without clocking, covering up all the vegetation, doing as long a lay in the bouts, working as easy as the ploughman, and pulverizing the soil, as the Watt Plough did. No man was found to accept the offer. HUGH POTATOES.—Our friends of the Kenesaw House, Fletcher & Freyer, have sent us a specimen of their sweet potatoes. It weighs quantities of pounds; could pass for a pumpkin if it had the right color; would do for dinner for the Kimball House guests, or, on a squeeze, might pay the coupons on Governor Bullock's bonds if sold out judiciously.

The War.

The war situation in Europe gets no more decisive. The two big armies fight with alternating successes. Rumors come thick as leaves, and so conflicting, that it is impossible to tell what's what. One report states that the army of the Loire is wiped out, and Palladines wounded, dead and captured. Another report tells us that a big part of the Parisian army has knocked a hole in the Prussian lines, joined the army of the Loire, and the Prussian jig is up. Still another report communicates that Paris has given up the sponge. And so they come, thick and fast, these multifarious and antagonistic accounts.

It all shows that there is great activity, and that we will probably see somebody badly hurt before long. The two monstrous pugilists seem to be in the ring for a final tussel. The interest gathers around the conflict as it thus culminates.

Gov. Bullock Still Reinforces his Party

We are informed that among the election managers nominated by Governor Bullock, for Decatur, is one James Allen Fitz Sisson, a Northern Methodist preacher who teaches a negro school. This individual was examined during the last week, by Dr. Miller and Dr. Johnson, examining physicians of the Southern Life Insurance Company, on his application for an insurance policy, and pronounced insane.

The Governor is hard put to it, when he appoints crazy men to manage the elections. What is the Governor up to? He has recruited his faction from the penitentiary, and now makes a dead set at the lunatics. We trust that he won't make a raid on the State Lunatic Asylum for voters. Though this looks like he was paving the way for it.

Hold up Governor. But if you will do it, why we hope you will take personal charge of the crazy squad.

Judge Hammond and the Mayoralty.

A strong effort has been made by Judge Hammond's friends to induce him to withdraw from the contest for Mayor. Many who liked and respected him deprecated the position in which his candidacy would place him. They sought alike his interest and the relief of the city of all danger from the movement of the Bullock faction.

This effort has failed, Judge Hammond persists in his candidacy. We apprehend that no true Democrat can have a moment's hesitation, or doubt as to the line of duty. The Radical candidate must be voted down.

Judge Hammond holds the position of the Radical candidate for Mayor, adopted by the Radical party by resolution, asking Democratic votes to defeat the regular nominee of the Democracy. The issue is well defined. The line is drawn. It is the battle between the Bullock and Blodgett faction headed by a Democrat, and the Democracy, for the control of the city.

Democrats will you vote for a man who thus perils the interests of the party and the people, and allies himself with the enemy. Every ballot you cast for Hammond is a ballot for the Bullock candidate for Mayor and for the Bullock faction to get control of the city. This is no trivial matter. It means support of the faction that seeks to saddle negro aldermen and negro polichmen upon us, and to put us in the clutches of a Ring.

The contest is one for vitality. The danger is great. The movement cannot succeed save by the help of Democrats. The Radicals will be powerless themselves. Now let the contest go on under party organization. Let the Democrats stand true to their nomination.

Shall we be foolish enough to vote into office a man, loaded down with the obligation of the Radical support, and elected through the Radical vote.

Democrats, it will be a sad day for Atlanta when, through your instrumentality, the Bullock faction gives a Mayor to the city. The entering wedge to Radical supremacy will have been entered.

Admirable Sentiments.

Governor Vance, of North Carolina, lately elected United States Senator, is a success; and his success is legitimate. It comes from his good sense and right principle, added to a vast amount of energy. These things make men successes every day.

Senator Vance's little speech of thanks for his late election contains some wise and good words, which we reproduce as worthy of record:

After the war, terms upon conditions were held out to the people of the South. I would not accept terms that would separate me from you and the brave boys who went at your bidding. The longest road has a turn. I did not wish to rise until I could rise with you. Thank God, that time has arrived. We go up now. We may go down again, but will go down together; and I will have good company—the best and bravest hearts in the land—with me. Because our party has been triumphant, there are some who urge retaliation. This should not be so. The best antidote for tyranny, the strongest weapon against it, is the enactment of just and wholesome laws. For that we have the government of North Carolina in our hands, we should not aim to avenge ourselves for the overruling of civil liberty among us, but we should so arrange that it cannot happen again—should see to it that no Executive or other authority can again attempt to destroy our liberties. From the obtaining of Magna Charta to the present day no attempt to override or abridge it has been made that has not more firmly established liberty. May it be so here. It is true that in the last five years we have felt what it is to be without trial by jury, to have arrests among us without warrant, and the freedom of the press abridged. All the people understand it now. It behooves us now to build up the great principles of civil liberty on the eternal rock of our great country. Let anger, revenge and retaliation be ignored, and let the laws (or your statute book bear the impress of a free people determined legitimately to maintain their freedom.

Personal.

* * * "Lastly, as to the card published by Mr. Kicklighter, I am not afraid of my honor being crushed on a question of veracity. I demanded the examination of the vote, and procured the consent of Judge Ezzard. The votes were all examined through without finding the number corresponding to my name, and after they had been divided and each man was making an examination of the votes in separate parcels, Mr. Kicklighter found a vote that had three numbers on it, one of which had been written over another number and which corresponded to my name on the sheet—how it came there, I know not; but one thing I do know, and that is, I did not vote it."

The above is the concluding paragraph of Judge Hammond's card in THE CONSTITUTION of this Wednesday morning.

I had hoped that it would not be necessary for me again to refer to this subject, but the covert allusion in the foregoing requires some notice. I observe in this language a very small avenue through which Judge Hammond hopes to escape responsibility to the public. I propose to blockade that avenue summarily, leaving the public to decide if I do so successfully.

I may briefly explain that, upon learning through friends, that on the election day in question (December last) there were Ezzard and Markham tickets, much resembling each other in typographical execution, I was willing to admit the possibility of my being in error, and stated as much to Judge Hammond, at the same time proposing that an investigation of the votes be had; that we apply to his Honor, William Ezzard, for the privilige; that each should select a friend to assist in the examination; and that if it should be proven that I was in error, I would publish a card in the city papers, making the amplest apology for the injustice done. This was agreed to, and the ballot-box procured. Judge Hammond himself broke the seals, and emptied the contents upon a table. His Honor, William Ezzard, Colonel L. P. Thomas, Henry Wooding, Judge Hammond, and myself assisted in the inspection of each vote. The number opposite Judge Hammond's name on the list of voters was 243. This ticket for one having that number on it) was not found in the first examination, but subsequently a ticket having 234, with 243 marked over it, was found, which same ticket seemed to have been reversed, and 244 put below it. We then found another ticket with 244 on it; also, another ticket numbered 234, neither of them being Ezzard tickets. So, if there was, as seems to have been the case, some confusion in the numbering of Judge Hammond's ticket at the time it was deposited, it was impossible for us to make that confusion redound to his advantage, twist or turn it as we might, for none of them were Ezzard tickets, and he insists that he voted for Judge Ezzard! It was of no consequence which of the numbers—243, 234, 244—was the proper one, as two of them were for Markham and the other for Alexander!

With regard to Judge Hammond's wild intimation: "how it come there, I know not," of foul play in examining the ballots I beg leave to say: That he was the party most interested, and if there was anything wrong done, he had as good a chance as any one to do it!

In the general desire of the gentlemen who were called upon to examine the ballots, to allow Judge Hammond the largest clarity; and to that end it was suggested in his presence that mistakes were common in all well regulated families—that the tickets resembled each other somewhat—and that it was altogether plausible for him to have put in the wrong ticket. This solution of the matter he spurned with indignation. He had asserted that "the horse was sixteen feet high," I suppose, and nothing short of that would answer his purposes! But I propose to introduce some testimony to assist me in determining the height of that quadruped, and then leave the matter with the public. Those who know me best, will bear witness that I would rather dew the mantle of charity over a man's faults than to give them rude exposure to the gaze of mankind, but while that is the case, I know of nothing more sacred than my own character as a man of truth; and, whatever may be the cost, that must and will be defended.

FRED. KICKLIGHTER.

Georgia, Fulton County.—In person came before me F. J. Bomar, who being duly sworn deposes and says: That on the night of the day at the last Mayor's election in Atlanta, while the votes were being counted, he saw the ticket bearing the same number as was opposite the name of Judge D. F. Hammond, on the list of voters kept by the managers of the election, and that ticket was in favor of William Markham for Mayor.

Deponent further deposes: That he was present at the polls when Judge Hammond voted, and a friend called deponent's attention to the ticket he was casting, and, after the election was over, deponent being present at the counting of the tickets, compared the number of the ticket with the number on the list of voters, and discovered it was a Markham ticket as above set forth.

F. J. BOMAR.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, November 30, 1870. R. A. JOHNSON, J. P.

Being called on by Mr. Kicklighter for a statment in reference to the examination of the ballot-box of the First Ward election one year ago, I have simply to say that Judge Hammond and Mr. Kicklighter came into my office, in company with Mr. Wooding and Judge Ezzard, both seeming to be anxious to examine the list and polls, requesting me to assist in the examination, which was conducted with perfect fairness on the part of all concerned, at least it appeared so to me. The result was, that we first found Judge Hammond's name opposite the number 243. The first time we looked through the tickets we did not find that number. We then looked over them the second time, and some one found a ticket which had evidently been marked first 234, then 243. The 4 being over the 3, and the 3 being over the 4. Thus making it (243) the number opposite Judge Hammond's name on the list. And I think, as if the clerk was not satisfied with this number, it being somewhat confused, seems to have turned the ticket bottom up and marked it 244, a natural mistake for a clerk to make, numbering regularly along. This ticket was a Markham ticket, with a full Democratic ticket below, and almost a fact simille of the red tickets with Judge Ezzard's name at the head.

Upon looking further we found a ticket numbered 244, without any confusion, which was a Radical ticket headed by Mr. Markham's name, and we also found a ticket numbered 234 with Alexander's name at the head of it; so that the conclusion arrived at was that there was no other ticket corresponding with the number opposite Judge Hammond's name but the first one, with the three numbers as above explained.

L. P. THOMAS.

This is to certify that we were present, a portion of the time, when the examination of the tickets in the ballot-box was made, and certify to the correctness of the statement of Colonel Thomas, except as to the finding of the last ticket mentioned, to-wit: No. 234, not being present when it was found.

WILLIAM EZZARD,
H. H. WOODING.

☞ The New York Express comments as follows: "Messrs. Farrow and Whitely have no more right to these seats than any other Georgians. The places belong to Homer V. M. Miller, whose term expires in 1871, and Joshua Hill, whose term expires in 1873—both having been duly elected by the constituted authorities. The Senate may reject them, as it did Mr. Stockton, of New Jersey; but all such acts are revolutionary and lawless, even though the Senate has the right to be the judge of its own elections."

NORTH CAROLINA.

RALEIGH, December 3.—After an harmonious session, the Temperance State Convention adjourned to meet at Franklinton in 1871.

The Democrats of the General Assembly are canvassing nightly in the subject of impeaching Governor Holden, and the calling a restricted Constitutional Convention.

Hon. Josiah Turner, editor of the Raleigh Sentinel, and ex-United States Senator T. L. Clingman had a personal encounter on the streets this morning. Canes were freely used. Mr. Clingman was very badly injured about the head, having received three or four severe blows. Mr. Turner received one very severe blow. Mr. Clingman made the assault. The difficulty originated in some strictures appearing in the Sentinel upon Mr. Clingman.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, December 3.—Advices from Paris to November 30, state that orders have been issued to the effect that army movements and other particulars not sanctioned by the Government officials, are not to be published on pain of suppression.

The military authorities have made public the following details of recent events around the city:

On November 29th, at daybreak, cannonading was opened from the forts on the south of the city. On the next day Generals Vinoy, Beizennei and Despreau moved out of the fortifications on the Vincennes south of L'Hay and Chatsey LeRoi. They attacked the positions of the Prussians and carried them. The Prussians were also dislodged at Granovetors. Loss severe.

FRANCE.

TOURS, November 3.—The Prussians are concentrating at Etampes, thirty miles south of Paris, to dispute the advance of Palladines.

LILLE, November 3.—Ducrats' sortie from Paris was successful, he is now seeking to effect junction with Paladines.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, December 3.—The friends of Mace and Coburn met to-day, to settle the preliminaries for the expected fight between the champions. After little discussion, the articles were signed for $2,000 a side, but the place will not be named until Monday. The fight will come off the second week in April. Mace wants to fight near New Orleans, and Coburn in Maryland, Virginia or Canada.

The convention of railway Presidents met again to-day at the St. Nicholas Hotel, to deliberate upon adopting a uniform rate of charges. The convention adjourned to meet in two week at some other point, but the locality is kept private.

EGYPT.

CAIRO, December 3.—Army furloughs have all been withdrawn, so that in case of any difficulties arising from the Eastern question an army can be placed at the disposal of the Sultan.

ITALY.

FLORENCE, December 3.—Signor Tarnicone has been appointed President of the Italian Senate.

AUSTRIA.

PESTH, December 3.—Baron Van Buest, Count Andreassy and Ex-Secretary of War Kuku, met the sub-committee of the Hungarian delegation yesterday, which said that the political question was serious but the military situation was good. There was no great anxiety in the Empire as the peaceful solution was acceptable.

FRANCE.

ARDENNES, December 3.—A force of one thousand Germans occupy Abbeville, in the department of Somme.

A German corps is threatening Dunkirk, near Abbeville, in the same department.

City Intelligence.

RETURNED.—Ex-Governor Brown and family returned to the city yesterday morning.

LIVE STOCK.—Quite a number of hogs, and beef cattle, were brought to the city yesterday.

SENATE.—This body has adjourned over until Tuesday morning.

FORREST reached the city yesterday afternoon, and is a guest of the National Hotel.

THERE will be no preaching at Trinity Church to-day.

COAL.—Our thanks are due Mr. A. C. Ladd for five bushels of Wheeler, East Tennessee, Coal, a full supply of which he always keeps on hand.

MULES AND HORSES.—Not so many being brought to this market as there were at this time last season. The demand for them is limited.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Six cases of disorderly conduct were disposed of by Major Rezard yesterday.

LIVELY.—Auctioneers appeared to be doing a fine business yesterday, sales seemed large, and bids spirited.

KILE'S CORNER was pretty much hid from view yesterday morning by wagons loaded with wood, shucks, produce, etc.

CULVERT.—A substantial granite culvert is being made on Peachtree street, just where it is crossed by Harris street.

WORRELL BURLESQUE TROUPE.—This excellent Company is billed for Augusta. Shall we have them in Atlanta?

EXECUTIVE MANSION.—Governor Bullock has moved into the handsome Mansion on Peachtree street, purchased by the State from Mr. J. H. James.

IMPROVEMENT.—Mr. Parkins, the architect, is drawing up plans for a residence for Mr. John H. James.

CURBING.—Glad to see it being laid on West side of Peachtree street, from Ellis, to Cone Streets.

PREACHING at the Christian Church this, morning and evening, by the Pastor, after services to-night, the ordinance of Baptism will be administered.

REV. DAVID WILLS will preach in the First Presbyterian Church on Marietta street, this morning and evening.

THE REV. HERMAN BOKUM will preach to-day at 11 o'clock, on the corner of Broad and Marietta streets, by special request, on the subject of Thanksgiving.

THE REV. A. R. CALLOWAY, of LaGrange, will preach at James' Chapel, this morning, at eleven o'clock, and, also, at half past seven in the evening. Sabbath School at three o'clock in the afternoon.

SUPERIOR COURT adjourned yesterday at 1 o'clock, P. M., until Monday morning at 8½. The ejectment case, which has occupied a day or two of the Court, will be resumed.

OPERA HOUSE.—It is reported that a company now organizing, will erect a handsome Opera House on one of the Park lots opposite the Kimball House.

REV. D. E. BUTLER will (D. V.) address the First Baptist Sunday School, in the main audience room of the church, this afternoon at 3½ o'clock. Other schools and the public are cordially invited.

RUNAWAY.—A couple of mules attached to a wagon, the property of Mr. Elson, of Milton county, runaway on Oak street yesterday. Mr. E. was driving, his daughter was also in the wagon. Two of the wheels badly broken. Parties riding uninjured.

ALMOST SERIOUS.—A couple of gay and festive young gentlemen, Messrs. T. and C., came very near having quite an accident, while riding on Marietta street, yesterday. The buggy was slightly damaged. Too much ——love, on the brain.

BARBER SHOP.—A gentleman connected with this office says that did we not have several excellent barber shops in the city, he would go all the way to Rome to be shaved by Haley & Hamilton, two number one Democratic barbers, near the Choice House, in the above named city.

WE CALL attention to the card of the new firm of Chamberlin, Boynton & Co. Messrs. Johnson and Briscoe are two of our most promising young men. They have been with the old firm for some time, and are thoroughly acquainted with the dry goods business. Success to them all.

REAL ESTATE.—Colonel G. W. Adair will sell on the premises, on Castleberry Hill, west side Peters street, on Tuesday, five lots. Two of these Peters street, on Tuesday, five lots. Two of these lots have good paying improvements on them. Same day he will sell one vacant lot on Decatur street, opposite the residence of Dr. Roach.

CARPETS, CURTAINS, ETC.—Messrs. S. S. Kendrick & Son inform us of large additions this week to their stocks of curtain materials, elegant novelties in rope, terries, damask and lace curtains, velvet corslets, binds, etc. Their new styles of short curtains, or "Lambrequins," are certainly beautiful.

THE GYROSCOPIC TOP.—Those enterprising gentlemen, Messrs Torbert & Brown, on Marietta street, who tempt little girls, with beautiful dolls, and children of larger growth by their exquisite fancy candy; are the first persons in the city, to introduce the very pretty and ingenious toy above mentioned. Be sure and go and see it.

JOHNSON HOUSE.—This Hotel, located at Kingston, and presided over by Mrs. Dr. Johnson, is an excellent resort for all who visit the above place. The table is most excellent, cleanliness and good cooking characterize the dining room. Beds soft and sweet, rooms numerous and well furnished. May the affable Mrs. Johnson, meet with all the patronage she so richly deserves.

THE ladies are requested to meet again at the Skating Rink on Monday morning, December 5th, at 10 o'clock, to complete arrangements for the supper and Christmas tree, for the benefit of the Confederate Cemetery, on the evenings of the 15th and 16th of December.

Messrs. T. Walker, J. Manone and W. T. Newman have been appointed a committee for procuring evergreens. These gentlemen are especially invited to be present.

We are authorized to state that a grand rally of the friends of education will be held at the City Hall on Tuesday night next, to consider the subject of Public Schools. This subject is now agitating the public mind to a large extent, and we trust that the friends of a liberal system of free education will attend the meeting. Chief Justice Brown, General [illegible], Colonel Steckley, Judge Lochrane and others [illegible] to address the meeting. Let there be a [illegible] of the friends of Public Schools.

REAL ESTATE.—Although not a great [illegible] is on the market, still prices represent of real e[illegible] business is being done. In fact, [illegible] real estate agent that, at this [illegible] was ordered by a leading [illegible] for property close in the [illegible] time has many demand[illegible] good sales during [illegible] city, and that he has made a [illegible] for homes [illegible] the week. The number of pers[illegible] coming in the city is larger just now than at any [illegible] the past several months. Farming lands near by are in great demand.

DEVIVA'S.—A numerous audience assembled at the above place last evening, and by their plaudits testified their appreciation of the entertainment. The sensation drama of the "Ticket-of-Leave Man" was selected as the play for the benefit of Mr. Florence. It was worthy of a visit to DeVive's to see Florence as Bob Brierly alone. The evening passed off to the delight of all, riveting the attention, and drawing to the entire company many friends. Mr. and Mrs. Florence, excel lent in burlesque, admirable in comedy, spicy and good in all they undertake, will ever meet a cordial welcome from the people of our city.

MESSRS. KURD & SMITH.—The gallery of these photographers, on White-hall street, is a popular resort for those who love the art. Their pictures are of a new perfection as subordinate conception and execution can render them. Their combinations of living originals are wonderful, and it is no easy task to handle the various lineaments and forms to apparently unimpressionable plates. These gentlemen have attained a proficiency that has placed their reputation beyond the reach of doubt.

DEAR SIR: Frequent inquiries are addressed to me in regard to the resources of this State, by those who think of immigrating. To reply to these intelligently, I need co-operation. I think it very desirable that an organization in the interest of immigration, should be formed in this city, which would become the center for the collecting and the circulating of information. I respectfully request those who are in favor of such an organization to meet, on Tuesday, December 6th, at 4 P. M., at my school room, corner of Broad and Marietta streets.

R. BOKUM.

MESSRS. M. C. AND J. F. KISER.—Is it necessary to refer to the dry goods establishment of these gentlemen, located at No. 70, Whitehall street? As they are two popular, energetic and well known, it requires one word of commendation from us? They have a varied and well-selected stock of all articles kept in their line, and are prepared to supply both the local and country demand at prices which are considered most secure No. 70 Whitehall street a liberal and increasing patronage. Their experience in the trade is a sufficient guaranty not only that their stock is most judiciously selected, in general [illegible] but that [illegible] will be [illegible]

MORTUARY REPORT.—In the subjoined report will be found the list of interments in the city of Atlanta for the month of November 1870.

DEATHS.

Whites over ten years	3
" under	4
Colored over	4
" under	20
Total	31
Of these, white paupers	1
Of these, colored paupers	15

For the corresponding month of 1869, there were reported 29 deaths.

And for the respective months of September and October, 1870, the list of mortality in the order named was 61 and 42.

The report for November, therefore, indicates a marked improvement in the health of the city. And it is hoped that when the system of Water Works, now in contemplation, shall have been added to the list of other improvements, that our city will experience such a change in its sanitary condition, that it will yield to no other in the South, in point of superiority in hygienic advantages. J. N. SIMMONS,

Chairman Board of Health.

DEMOCRATIC RALLY.—In accordance with a previous notice, from 2,500 to 3,000 persons assembled in front of the National Hotel last night at eight o'clock. Two wagons filled with boys bearing transparencies, were out on the street. One of the transparencies attracted a good deal of attention. On one side of it was a balloon with Hamilton, Williams and Shearer in it, singing "Up in a Balloon;" another "Ho, member, Hammond is a Rotter;" another with drawings of Harris and Hammond, and printed on it "The fat men of the Radical ticket;" still another transparency had a drawing of one man kicking another, and above it printed "Kick-lighter." There were several others.

W. T. Newman, Esq., President of the Young Men's Democratic Club, called the meeting to order, and introduced Judge Samuel B. Hoyt to the audience. The Judge made a sensible speech, replete with practical advice to the party. After the Judge concluded his speech the colored band, which was present, discoursed appropriate music.

Major George Hillyer then came forward, and, though indisposed, entertained the crowd in about a quarter of an hour's speech.

Governor Bard was then introduced to the meeting, and was enthusiastically received. The Doctor spoke three-quarters of an hour, defining his position and giving a cordial support to Dr. Alexander.

Col. L. J. Glenn very happily entertained the large audience, commanding and holding their attention.

Col. Wright, of Newnan, Democratic candidate for Congress in the Third Congressional District, made a sound, sensible speech, convincing his hearers that he was all right. The concluding speech was made by Colonel John Thomas, who pleasantly held the audience in a sensational effort.

After music, the audience dispersed. All were highly entertained, and nothing occurring to mar the pleasantness of the meeting.

THE PHILADELPHIA STEAM LINE.—The improved prospect of business on the line between Charleston and Philadelphia has induced the purchase of the iron screw steamship Virginia, favorably known in the New York and Galveston trade, as one of Messrs. Williams & Guion's line, running in alliance with Messrs. Mallony & Co's regular line to Texas. The Virginia is 180 feet long, 26 feet beem, 17 feet deep, hull of iron throughout, and has a capacity of 1,100 bales cotton, on a draft of ten feet, cabin accommodations for thirty passengers, and will meet the requirements of our trade very well indeed, ensuring to shippers not only ample freight and passenger accommodation, but regularity. The Virginia sails from Philadelphia this afternoon, to take her place on the line, leaving this port on the 3d December, the sailing days at both ports being fixed for Saturdays in future. Messrs. Clyde, of Philadelphia, Pelzer, Rodgers & Co., of Charleston and others, are interested in this important line, which is needed very much, and must be successful, with the improved class of vessels now on the line. Mr. Wm. A. Courtenay is the agent of this Steam Company, office at Union Wharves.

THE United States Hotel, Louisville, Ky., is first-class in every respect.

FAST LIVING AND ITS CONSEQUENCES.—When "fast life" has undermined the strength, destroyed the appetite, impaired the digestion, and stolen the hue of health from the cheek—when the hand trembles, the spirits droop, and the whole physical and mental organization languishes, is it possible to repair the evil and restore the dilapidated system to full health and vigor? We answer that it is. Hundreds of cases have been cited, thousands might be cited, in which this regeneration has been accomplished by the regular and persistent use of Plantation Bitters. Abstinence from the indulgences which have wrought the mischief is, of course, one of the means of restoration. But it is not [illegible] alone. The consequences remain [illegible] cause has been abandoned. A [illegible] tonic is absolutely necessary to rouse the wholesome [illegible] energies from their state [illegible] Plantation Bitters to perform. But no other must be taken.

AN OLD FRIEND.—For many years the Press of the country has chronicled the beneficial effect of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Editors, authors, physicians, merchants, officers of the army and navy, chemists, counsellors, ministers of the gospel, in short, a great cloud of witnesses of every profession, trade and calling, have testified to its efficacy as a tonic and regulating medicine. The names and statements of these witnesses have been published in the public prints. Many of them are well-known to the whole public. Their testimony has never been challenged or impugned. This OLD FRIEND has been tried, and pronounced, on the authority of those whose lives and health it has preserved, a pure, harmless and eminently salutary preparation. Attempts have been made to rival it. They have failed. There is nothing equal to the enjoyment experienced by the afflicted when using this valuable specific. Its mild tone, its sure and vigorous action upon a disordered stomach, and the cleansing of the entire human body, recommend it to the whole community as a Reliable Friend.

MUSICAL.—There are many Pianos in the market now a days for which numerous advantages are claimed. Some of them are very good and some of them are very poor. Some of them will wear for years in excellent tone, while others, which appear well at the first, become flat and tinkley after a little time. But there is always one instrument which may be relied upon, and that is the Wm. Knabe & Co., Piano. Those Pianos stand among the first in the world in all countries, and have been awarded seventy premiums, including the State Fairs at Macon and Atlanta. Messrs. Philips & Crew, and Prof. P. L. Freyer are agents in this city for the Knabe, as well as the C. L. Gorham & Co. Pianos, which latter, by the way, stand very high and among the best, though somewhat less expensive. They also have Pianos from all other first-class manufacturers and can accommodate all comers, both as to style, price, etc. Call and see them if you are thinking of purchasing a Pianoor an Organ, as they are the agents for Mason & Hamlin's Organs, the best in the world, we believe. WOMAN'S BEST FRIEND.—To relieve the aching heart of woman and bring joy where sorrow reigned supreme, is a mission before which the smiles of kings dwindle into utter insignificance. To do this is the peculiar province of Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator; which, from the numberless cures it has accomplished, is appropriately styled Woman's Best Friend. The distressing complaint known as "whites," and the various irregularities of the womb, to which woman is subject, disappear like magic before a single bottle of this wonderful compound. It is prepared by L. H. Bradfield, Druggist, Atlanta, Ga., and sold at $1.50 per bottle by respectable druggists everywhere. Physicians prescribe it. Its action is prompt, sure and decisive.

CANCER! CANCER!!

DR. W. L. HITCHCOCK,

OF MADISON, GEORGIA,

Makes a specialty of treating all persons afflicted with

CANCERS, SCROFULA,

Indolent, Ulcers, etc., etc.

HE has successfully treated CANCERS for the last TWENTY YEARS, without the use of the knife or any mercurial agent. He begs to refer those afflicted to the following gentlemen with whom they have been cured by his treatment. They speak for themselves. The question will be asked what is Dr. Hitchcock? To all such I will answer that I was born and raised in Georgia. For all of which I feel very proud. I am permanently located in Madison, Ga.

DR. W. K. HITCHCOCK:—It gives me pleasure to give my testimony in regard to the wonderful effects produced by your Vegetable Cancer Plaster. About five years ago I became afflicted with Cancer, just above my right breast. From that time to August 1st, 1869, I had as many as ten or twelve Physicians to examine and prescribe for it, but all proved of no avail. I called on you about the first of August, 1869, and put myself under your treatment. I am happy to say that the Plaster applied by Dr. Hitchcock, has now entirely well. I cheerfully give this certificate, not for the purpose of applauding you, though I feel under lasting obligations to you for the cure, I do it for the benefit of all such as may be afflicted with this terrible malady.

FRANCIS A. CALLOWAY.
Rutledge, Ga., June 1, 1870.
Tested by Dr. J. F. JACKSON,
Dr. J. J. MONTGOMERY.

Dr. W. L. HITCHCOCK: I do hereby certify that I have had a Cancer on the angle of my jaw for fifteen years, and have applied to a number of physicians for treatment, but without success. The application of your celebrated Plaster removed the Cancer in eight days from the time of application. It has now been nearly two years since I was cured. I cheerfully give this for the benefit of the afflicted.

T. P. PEACOCK.
Madison, Ga., June 1, 1870.

I do certify that I have been troubled with a Cancer on my cheek, near my under eye-lid for two years past. I applied to Dr. W. L. HITCHCOCK, who applied his celebrated Cancer Plaster, and was agreeably surprised to see the Cancer come out whole, the eighth day from application; I am now well, and my face entirely healed up. I advise all persons afflicted with Cancer to give him a trial.

ROBERT SHIELDS.
Madison, August 2, 1869.

I have been suffering with a Cancer of the large kind, on the back of my neck, called rose cancer, for the past three years. I applied to Dr. W. L. HITCHCOCK, of Madison, who put a plaster on the Cancer, and, in eight days, it came out entirely. I am now well, and have been since the Cancer came out, which was last fall.

M. W. COFER.
Rutledge, Ga., September, 1869.

DR. W. L. HITCHCOCK—Dear Sir: I am pleased to state that your Plaster has entirely cured the Cancer on my nose, which has give me so much trouble. I shall ever feel grateful to you for the success of your remedy.

MISS LORINA STRATTON.
Madison, Ga., May, 1870.

DR. W. L. HITCHCOCK: I am pleased to certify that I have had a large Cancer on my right arm for twenty years, and have seen and adjured with numbers of Physicians, who advised me to let it alone, as they considered the Cancer too far advanced to be subdued by remedies. I heard of your celebrated Plaster for treatment, as a last resort, and to my great satisfaction your Plaster has taken out the Cancer, in eight days, by the roots, and the sore is now rapidly healing, and I entertain strong hopes of a speedy recovery.

J. F. BURNS.
Edgefield Court House, S. C.

DR. W. L. HITCHCOCK—Dear Sir: I do hereby certify that I have been afflicted sorely with Cancer for fifteen years, and have tried many Physicians, and spent a great deal of money—all to no purpose, until I called on you, last March, 1869. The application of your Plaster has acted like a charm. I have the Cancer now in my possession, and the sores are all healed up, except one small place, which is nearly healed. I beg to refer all persons afflicted to call on Dr. Hitchcock, at Madison, Ga.

T. R. BREEN.
Edgefield Court House, or Hamburg, South Carolina, May, 1870.

DR. W. L. HITCHCOCK—Dear Sir: I am happy to certify that your remedies have cured the Cancer on my face and nose, that had given me so much pain for many years. It appears as sound as if I never had a Cancer.

MRS. E. B. STANTON.
Newton County, Ga., April 29, 1870—Post-office at Social Circle, Ga.

It affords me pleasure to state that I have witnessed a number of cures of Cancer, by the application of Dr. W. L. Hitchcock's Cancer Plaster.

J. F. PATTERSON,

DR. W. L. HITCHCOCK

Liver Medicin.

I would also state that, in addition to curing Cancers, I am in regular practice of medicine and make a speciality of treating chronic diseases especially those peculiar to females, to which, by long experience and extensive practice, I guarantee perfect satisfaction. I also keep a full assortment of my family medicines on hand, and in order to facilitate my business, but I call your special attention to my celebrated COMPOUND FLUID EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA AND IODIDE IRON, OR ANTIDOTE TO BLOOD AND LIVER TONIC. It invariably relieves the following disorders: Chronic Torpidity of the Liver, Spleen, Kidneys, and Bladder. It cures Piles, Fistula, and Scrofula. Eruptions and Blotches for Life. It cures mercurial and old venereal diseases. These diseases, how can this one medicine cure all? The answer is this: It is so compounded as to answer all of the requirements of the system, being compounded of the best, purest and most reliable Liver medicine, tonic, alterative, diuretic and disinfectants that belong to the vegetable kingdom. This medicine is the result of twenty years experience. I used it in my private practice the last 10 years and within the past six months I have sold over $2,000 worth of it, and I have no fear of the first complaint. I claim and assert it without the fear of contradiction from any that have tried it, to be superior to any of the preparations of the day for all the diseases that I recommend it for.

I have never advertised this medicine before. I have always been opposed to advertising nostrums and quack medicines, but having been persuaded, for years, by my friends, I have concluded to do so, for the good of all that may avail themselves of the benefits of it. I could give thousands of testimonials to the happy effects of this medicine, but I would find that I would be inundated with letters, and all I ask is to give it a fair and impartial trial. Take it in the direction on the outside, and if you do not find it all, or more than I claim for it, I will agree to stop the sale.

I put up my medicine in 4 and TWO DOZ LAR bottles, to suit persons and families.

One word more to those who are suffering with Cancer. Don't let the fear of the knife deter you. For the most of them will, because they can't cure you themselves, will tell you that the knife is the only thing you can't be cured.

I have been curing Cancers for twenty years, and have never failed but in three cases, and those were beyond medical aid. If you have a CANCER call and see me, and I will tell you candidly what I can do for you; will charge nothing for examination, and if I can't cure you, will be frank to tell you so.

CERTIFICATES.

Dr. W. L. Hitchcock—Dear Sir: This is to certify that my wife, Mrs. Slaughter, received the Cancer Plaster from you, and it took out roots, seed and all. Thanks, Doctor, for your good services. I can say it has done more than all the doctors in Georgia. Dr. Cheney, of Newboro, cured my daughter, Mrs. Slaughter, of a cancer, and said my daughter's was the worst case of infection of the liver, and also was badly affected with asthma. I am glad to say that she is now entirely relieved. Our opinion is about the turn of life, and has been cook weed, with diseased liver, and general debility suffering with inflammatory rheumatism. She says she is entirely cured by the use of your Plaster, and I cheerfully recommend it to the public as a strictly first-class medicine.

Yours truly,

DR. W. L. HITCHCOCK—Dear Sir: I have been afflicted for the last seven years, with a liver and dyspeptic complaint, which has rendered my life almost a burden. I have scarcely been able to eat, or digest my food without pain, and to relieve myself, resorted to various kinds of medicine, but could not obtain relief. I took a course of your Alterative Medicine, and am now well and hearty. I cheerfully recommend all persons who may be afflicted with Liver Complaint, to give your medicine a trial, and I am sure they will be relieved.

Dr. W. L. Hitchcock—Dear Sir: I have been afflicted for a number of years past, with a Cancer on my face, and became convinced that it was incurable, which had resisted the skill of a large one on my jaw. I commenced treatment, or rather cure, for twelve months. Medicine entered taking your Alterative and Liver Medicine, and your Cancer Plaster, and am now entirely cured. Your medicine has done more for me than all the doctors and medicine I have ever taken. I feel grateful, and take pleasure in recommending your medicine to all persons afflicted with the above disease, to try it.

Woman's Rights.

They have a queer woman orator in San Francisco. Here is a portion of a speech she made recently:

They say man was created first. 'Sposin' he was! Ain't first experiments always failures? If I was a betting man I'd bet two dollars and a half they are. The only decent thing about him, anyhow, was a rib, and that went to make something better, 'spose. And then they throw it in our face about Eve taking that apple. I'll bet five dollars Adam boosted her up in the tree, and then only gave her the core. And what did he do when he was found out? True to his masculine instinct, he sneaked behind Eve's Grecian bend, and said "'twerent'nt me, 'twas her." Bring up your little daughters to love and caress the ballot, and when they are old and scrawny they will not depart from it. Teach them that man occupies no position that woman can not fill, even to a pair of pants. Teach them that without the ballot woman is simply a cooking and washing machine; that with it she can just rule her little roost.

We have plenty of ballet girls, but what we want is ballot women. [Hear, hear.] I am astonished there ain't more interest manifest in this absorbing topic. This hall ought to be filled from dome to ceiling, and a couple of hundred clinging up the lightning-rod outside. Our speakers don't lack brains or influence, but there is one thing I wish they did lack, and that is their desire for a husband. No matter how rabid a woman is on this question, or how much she talks against the men on the platform, she'd grab the first one that offered himself, and turn right straight round; and that's where we're weak. Most women think they're made for a purpose, and that was to have Man and their tomb-stone. They'd better be missed all their lives, and when they die, the more they're missed the better. I'm commander-in-chief of a large army of female woman's ballots, and am cleaning out everything that looks like male sex, whilst the band plays "See, the conquering sh'ero cometh." Come with me to the worst portion of our great city.

After ascending thirty-one flights of rickety stairs, what do we find? A miserable basement. In one corner sits a wretched woman, once the belle of the city. She makes vests. Twenty-four vests for a cent. Not a morsel of food has passed her lips since fall. Around her are fourteen children crying for bread. But, alas! she ain't got no bread; but with tears in her eyes, she mournfully divides the last half of a tallow candle. Here I overdrawn this picture? No, sir. And if any man dares to say I have, I'll guarantee to send him home on a shutter in less than ten minutes. [Emotion in the audience.]

But, my dear sisters, I am not here to touch your hearts, but to touch your pockets, also. A thing of this kind can't go on without money, and I hereby call upon four able sisters who feel 'tis sweet to be on the muscle, to pass round the hat.

Think of the greatness of our cause, and its effect upon thousands of ancestors still unborn. Think of your starved families, your widowed mothers, with dissipated husbands, press their orphan children to their bosoms. Think, oh! think, of George Washington at Mr Valey's forge, barefooted, and—shell out. [This appeal was so moving that a majority of the audience moved toward the door. About seven dollars and a half was collected, however, which went for Mr. Skinner's newest corkscrew curls. After putting the amount in her reticule, and planting her right foot firmly upon it, she proceeded.] My dear friends, I must now bid you adieu, but I will be with you again when times are better, for I intend to agitate this question till we get our rights, and whatever we can sponge besides. I will agitate it till my breath gives out and my wig turns gray.

The Atlanta and Savannah Railroad.

A few days ago we gave the particulars of the meeting of the directors of the Atlanta and Savannah Railroad, in Savannah. We gave the resolutions, etc.

The following additional particulars are also given:

The following gentlemen answered to their names: J. D. Pope, John Norcross, William McNaught, E. E. Rawson, from Atlanta; J. M. Pace, J. J. Harris, by proxy, and Colonel J. T. Henderson, from Newton county; Jas. A. Etheridge, from Putnam county; A. A. Gilmore, J. T. Smith, from Washington county; H. D. Capers, Hiram Roberts, from Savannah.

Absent—George W. Wylly, Reuben Jordan, E. J. Hulsey, and Robert Humber.

Mr. Secretary proposed to give a history of the enterprise. He said that it was one which had been organized in the interest of no corporation, but was designed to form a through line and a direct communication between Savannah and the commercial emporium of Georgia, and the great West, either by Chattanooga, or by way of Decatur, Alabama, either to Memphis or Louisville, Kentucky, or Cincinnati. He said that it was dwarfing this enterprise to consider it the branch of any railroad merely. It was a grand Georgia enterprise, more in the interest of the metropolis of the State and its capital than it was in the interest of any existing corporation. The road should find friends among the people and in these two cities, because it was illegal, improper in management, to overthrow existing monopolies in the State, which were for building themselves up at the expense of the people, and were sapping the prosperity of these cities.

Colonel Capers continued his remarks to the corporators, pointing the advantages to accrue to the people of Middle Georgia and to the city of Savannah by perfecting a direct, short line of communication to the great West.

At the request of the Board he read the charter.

General Clark, of Covington, said that he was not a corporator, but came as a proxy of Mr. Price and Mr. Harris, of Covington, to attend this meeting. He wanted to know if the Board understood if Covington was to be a point on the road. He did not represent the people of Newton county, but the people of Covington, but if not the road was not to go to Covington, he had no interest in it.

It was determined that the question of locating the road was not in order. It was a matter for the stockholders to determine under the provisions of the charter.

General Clark said he had an interview with Judge King, the President of the Georgia Railroad, and was the Attorney for said railroad. His understanding was that the road was to go to Covington, and from there to Atlanta, by the Georgia Railroad.

It was decided that the decision of the question was premature.

Some one suggested that the road had better avoid any entangling alliances. The great object was to construct a great highway of commerce, and not to advance the interest of existing corporations solely. Several telegrams from Atlanta and New York were received, containing important information bearing on the interests of the road prospectively.

ABOUT BEN. BUTLER'S BETTER-HALF.—A New York Correspondent of the Cincinnati Times writes: I saw in a Western paper, the other day, that Benjamin F. Butler, (he married Miss Hildreth, the leading actress at the National Theater in your city many years ago,) was compelled to give up his wife because she obtained a divorce from him soon after the birth of their daughter Blanche, for some years one of the belles of Washington. This will be very new news to General Butler and his wife, who have always lived most happily and harmoniously together; the wife being the identical Miss Hildreth, the interesting and accomplished actress of a quarter of a century ago.

DONKEY STEAK.—I never shall see a donkey without gratefully thinking of a Prussian. If any one happens to fall out with his jackass, let me recommend him, instead of beating it, to slay and eat it. Donkey is now all the fashion. When one is asked to dinner, as an inducement one is told that there will be donkey. The flesh of this obstinate but weak-minded quadruped is delicious, in color like mutton, firm and savory. This siege will destroy many illusions, and among them the prejudice which has prevented many animals being used as food. I can most solemnly assert that I never wish to taste a better dinner than a joint of donkey or a ropout of cat.

☞ There is a report that the New York Times, perceiving which way the political wind blows, is about to abandon the milk-and-water style in politics, and openly espouse the principles of Democracy. That journal, once tried the new party role (a trial which the Chicago Tribune is now imitating) and found it unprofitable as well as unsuccessful. Naturally, it reaches the conclusion that the best way to enter the Democratic temple is to go in boldly at the front door, and not to dodge around through the back alley.

☞ Ida Lewis, the Lime Rock heroine who was married a few weeks ago, received from the late Mr. Peabody, the sum of five thousand dollars. The money was placed in trust for the benefit of the young lady, therefore Ida is not a dowerless bride.

Nor was she a childless one either.

THIS Company has purchased the right to manufacture and sell "Doty's Gas Generator," in the States of Georgia, Alabama, Florida and South Carolina. The gas is generated by a simple chemical process, without fuel or heat. Machines are made suitable for dwellings, printing offices, hotels, churches, saile and factories, in cities or in the country.

The gas manufactured from the "Gas Generator" for beauty, safety and economy is unsurpassed—the cost being about one-fifth of the coal gas. The machine is in successful operation—any coal gas. Dr. John Bull's

Great Remedies.

DR. JOHN BULL,

Manufacturer and Vender of the Celebrated

Smith's Tonic Syrup,

FOR THE CURE OF

Ague and Fever,

—OR—

Chills and Fever.

THE Proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the safe, certain, speedy and permanent cure of Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southwestern country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion, that in no case whatever will it fail to cure, if the directions are strictly carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of general health. It is, however, prudent, and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long standing cases. Usually, this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order; should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of BULL'S VEGETABLE FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient.

Bull's Worm Destroyer.

To my United States and World-wide Readers.

I have received many testimonials from professional and medical men, as my Almanacs and various publications have shown, all of which are genuine. The following letter, from a highly educated and popular physician in Georgia, is certainly one of the most sensible communications I have ever received. Dr. Clement knows exactly what he speaks of, and his testimony deserves to be written in letters of gold. Hear what the Doctor says of Bull's Worm Destroyer:

VALLANOW, Walker County, Ga., June 29, 1869.

DR. JOHN BULL:

DEAR SIR—I have recently given your "Worm Destroyer" several trials, and find it wonderfully efficacious. It has not failed in a single instance to have the wished for effect. I am doing a pretty large country practice, and have daily use for some article of the kind. I am free to confess that I know of no remedy recommended by the ablest authors that is so certain and speedy in its effects. On the contrary, they are uncertain in the extreme. My object in writing you is to find out upon what terms I can get the medicine direct from you. If I can get it upon easy terms, I shall use a great deal of it. I am aware that the use of such articles is contrary to the teachings and practice of a great majority of the regular line M. D.'s; but I see no just cause or good sense in discarding a remedy which we know to be efficient, simply because we may be ignorant of its combination. For my part, I shall make it a rule to use all and any means to alleviate suffering humanity which I may be able to command—not hesitating because some one more ingenious than myself may have learned its effects first, and secured the sole right to secure it that knowledge. However, I am by no means an advocate or supporter of the thousands of worthless nostrums that flood the country, that purport to cure all manner of disease to which human flesh is heir. Please reply soon, and inform me of your best terms. I am, sir, most respectfully,

JULIUS P. CLEMENT, M. D.

BULL'S

SARSAPARILLA.

A GOOD REASON FOR THE CAPTAIN'S FAITH.

READ THE CAPTAIN'S LETTER AND THE LETTER FROM HIS MOTHER.

BENTON BARRACKS, Mo., April 30, 1866.

DR. JOHN BULL—Dear Sir: Knowing the efficiency of your Sarsaparilla, and the healing and beneficial qualities it possesses, I send you the following statement of my case.

I was wounded two years ago—was taken prisoner and confined for sixteen months. Being moved so often, my wounds have not healed yet. I have not set up a moment since I was wounded. I am shot through the hips. My general health is impaired, and I need something to assist nature. I have more faith in your Sarsaparilla than in anything else. I wish that that is possible. Please express me one bottle, and direct, as above.

CAPT. C. F. JOHNSON,
St. Louis, Mo.

P. S.—The following was written April 30, 1866, by Mrs. Jennie Johnson, mother of Captain Johnson:

DR. BULL—Dear Sir: My husband, Dr. C. S. Johnson, was a skillful surgeon and physician in Central New York, where he died, leaving me above C. F. Johnson to my care. At thirteen years of age he had a chronic diarrhœa and scrofula, for which I gave him your Sarsaparilla. It CURED HIM. I have for ten years recommended it to many in New York, Ohio and Iowa, for scrofula, fever sores and general debility. Perfect success has attended it. The cures effected in fever sores were almost miraculous. I am very anxious for my son to have no reason to doubt your Sarsaparilla. He is fearful of meeting a spurious article, hence his writing to you for it. His wounds were terrible but I believe he will recover. Respectfully,

JENNIE JOHNSON.

Cedron Bitters.

AUTHENTIC DOCUMENTS.

ARKANSAS HEARD FROM.

Testimony of Medical Men.

STONEY POINT, WHITE Co., ARK., May 30, 1866.

DR. JOHN BULL—Dear Sir: Cedron Febrifuge I was in Louisville purchasing drugs, and I got some of Your Cedron Bitters and Cedron Febrifuge.

My wife, who was with me, one in the store, has been down with fever and ague for some time, commenced on the Bitters, and soon found his general health improved.

Dr. Gist, who has been in bad health for several years, took the rest of them. Indeed, the Cedron Bitters has given very great popularity in this section. I think I could sell a great quantity of your medicines. Please send me Cedron Bitters, Cedron Febrifuge, Indigo, and Sarsaparilla, and one Richard & Lady.

Respectfully,
